TUESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 17.

GENERAL SEBASTIANI, brother of Marshal Sebastiani, one of the few remaining veterans of the first French empire, died recently at Ajaccio. He was born at Porta, Corsica, in 1786, and began his military career in 1806, ander the orders of Junot. He took part in the campaigns of Portugal, Spain, and Russia. At the battle of Dresden he was made colonel. and a short time afterward dangerously wound-.d. During the hundred days he followed Napoleon's fortunes, and distinguished himself at Ligny and Waterloo. In 1823 he was ap-After the revolution of July he was still further promoted, and contributed to the capture of Antwerp. He was raised to the peerage in 1837, and made, successively, military commander of Paris, which post he kept until the night of February 23, 1848, when he was replaced by Marshal Bugan. Since theu he has been living in complete retirement at largest and best assorted stocks of Ajaccio.

LIBERIA.—There are rumors of civil war from the African Republic of Liberia. President Roye was elected about two years ago for four years, but the Liberian Congress recently passed an act limiting the President's term to predecessor of Mr. Roye, and a candidate for the Presidency, have raised a clamor for Mr. of fine and coarse work, ever before offered for Roye's resignation. The latter refuses to resign, and in an affray at Monrovia between the supporters of Roye and those of Roberts. Finlay, the collector of the port, and one of Roye's principal adherents, was shot dead.

For sale by practical experience in inventing and manufacturing Fire Place Stoves, and combines all the improvements of our former Stoves, with additional improvements made this present season

This Stove is a decided success. Several hundred of them were put up in dwellings during the latter part of the Fall and during the Winter, and we have received many testimonials giving them the highest praise for powerful heating capacity and economy in the consumption of feet tion of fuel.

THE DINING ROOM QUEEN.—We have added a new Fire Place Stove to our list this season. This Stove is suitable for dining rooms. It is very ornamental and would answer for parlors also. It has the convenience of a large oven, which can be used for warming plates, and heating irons, as well as baking and boiling.

We also manufacture the BALTIMORE PARLOR HEATERS, which are Top-Feeding and Self-Feeding Stove. They are beautifully finished and of great heating power.
